Genre-specific? The musicians of MESH MUSIC have toured and collaborated with some of the world's top artists in pop, jazz, country, world music, hip hop, and beyond. They are versatile, knowledgeable and passionate.

Product-focused? MESH MUSIC are composers and producers who create original content, or adapt existing content to fulfill client or brand message, or to commemorate a special event or individual. Their goal is to seamlessly integrate their music into the tone and goals of the client and the event.

Tech-savvy? One of the most innovative aspects of MESH MUSIC is their streamlined technical delivery of their expansive sound. By utilizing the most advanced digital equipment and each individual being multi-instrumentalists, MESH MUSIC operates on a minimum stage footprint, streamlined audio output channels, and most crucially: 100% control over the music volume at your AV tech's fingertips. You can have a full table of clients 5 feet away with no issues.

Star power? Need performance support for a celebrity spokesperson or high-profile music artist? MESH MUSIC has the experience, and the expertise to provide world-class musical support for any artist, and Topher Stott's extensive music industry contacts can assist in procuring feature talent otherwise thought to be unattainable.
